John James

Managing Director
Vanguard Investments Australia Ltd.

John James is Managing Director for Vanguard Investments Australia, leading both the retail and institutional businesses.

John joined Vanguard at its U.S. headquarters in 2008 as head of broker-dealer sales and distribution, and more recently began development of a new line of global business focused on financial advisers and intermediaries.

Prior to joining Vanguard, John was CEO of Port Adelaide Football Club (AFL), and brings 17 years experience working in senior roles with prominent Australian and New Zealand financial services companies. He was general manager of corporate distribution with MLC (and had responsibility for NAB's Business Bank Wealth management arm) and was a senior executive with Rothschild Australia Asset Management.

Along with industry qualifications awarded by the Securities Institute of Australia and the National Insurance Institute, Mr. James holds an M.B.A. from The University of Adelaide.
